Retreat – June 17 to 19

Mount St. Mary’s Seminary with Fr. Jack Lombardi

Blessed or stressed? Living a Holy Life in today’s challenging world is the theme for this retreat. In today’s fast paced world how can we lead Christ-centered lives? Discover ways to develop a sacred-sacramental life. Learn ways to foster mindfulness in your daily life. Learn how “activism” can demolish you, families and churches. Do you seek and enjoy holy silence? How much do you decide to stay on “the treadmill” of busyness and how much do you allow the culture to keep “pushing” it? Is simplicity really possible in today’s wired, wily world? How can the saints and other holy persons help us lead grace-filled lives? Learn ways of avoiding extremes and embracing moderation. So send up an S.O.S by joining us on this weekend away...Embrace on this leisurely retreat the “Sacredness of Simplicity,” and learn how it is possible in today’s world. For more information: (301) 678-6339 or officestpeter@verizon.net.

From Barbara . . .

Jesus tells the Apostles to make disciples by baptizing them. By virtue of our own baptism we are disciples of Jesus and therefore are given the task of building up the kingdom of God by living according to our faith and sharing it with the people with whom we are in contact. On this feast of the Ascension let us remember that Jesus is with us always and gives us the strength to live our lives according to his command. Take time this week to share your faith by action or word with the people in your life.

Next weekend, June 11/12, we celebrate Pentecost. Liturgically when we celebrate a feast of the Holy Spirit the priest wears red. I invite you to also consider wearing red next week to show how our parish communities are alive in the Spirit.

Over the last several weeks and for the next couple we are celebrating Baptism, First Eucharist and Confirmation with many of our young parishioners. It's a great sign of the strength of our parishes to be sharing these celebrations with the Confirmandi, those receiving communion for the first time, those being baptized and their families. They bring joy and enthusiasm to our faith communities. Thank you for celebrating with them and welcoming them into our communities.

May God continue to bless us all.
