New Roman Missal Workshop

Saturday, September 24, 2011

9 am to 12 noon

Our Lady of Mount Carmel
Parish Center

Fr. John Holliday, pastor of St. Joseph Church, Emmitsburg, will be leading a workshop on the changes in the Mass that will take place the first Sunday of Advent 2011. Everyone, especially liturgical ministers, is invited to attend to learn about the Mass and how the changes will affect the prayers and responses of the congregation and the priest. A light breakfast will begin the day and we will end with a pizza lunch at noon.

From Barbara . . .

Today's gospel is a very challenging one for me. At first glance it seems the landowner is being unfair to the workers he hired earlier in the day by paying everyone the same wage no matter how long they worked. Yet, he paid everyone exactly what he had promised to begin with. The earlier workers built it up when they saw the newer workers getting paid what they had been told and then expected to be paid more. Do we look beyond what has been promised and expect bigger rewards because we think we've done more to deserve the larger pay? God doesn't compensate us on time served or amount of work done. God knows what we need and is very generous to boot. Take time this week to recognize all the blessings in your life, whether you've earned them or not.

Casseroles for the Frederick Rescue Mission are due in the office this Wednesday, September 21. Pans and recipes are available in the back of church. This is a great way to get your whole family involved in serving the poor. Please consider taking a pan and making a casserole to serve the poor in our community.

In our parish survey someone commented that maybe we could serve food at Colorfest. Great idea and we already have the opportunity available. For many years Our Lady of Mount Carmel has staffed a food stand right in the middle of the park. Crab cake sandwiches, Italian sausage subs, and hot dogs are served at lunchtime. In the morning breakfast sandwiches are available. It's a wonderful fundraiser. Volunteers are always needed to help set up on Friday; serve food on Saturday and Sunday; and most importantly, to clean up on Sunday afternoon. If you are interested in helping, call Will Lyons. The information is elsewhere in the bulletin.

May God continue to bless us all.

Haiti Committee Open Meeting

Your ideas and help are needed to strengthen connections with our sister church in Haiti, helping raise awareness and involvement. Come join us Sunday evening, September 25th at 7:00 pm in the OLMC Parish Center for a short presentation of our current involvement with our sister church, and to take some positive steps to activate our future. All ages welcome!

Catechetical Sunday

Today is Catechetical Sunday. It is an annual celebration to affirm the role of catechists, to promote catechesis in the parish community and to foster the ongoing catechesis of children, youth and adults. The theme for Catechetical Sunday is "Do this in Memory of Me". This is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith.
