Additionally, it has put us on a slippery slope to devalue human life even further with assisted suicide, euthanasia and embryonic stem cell research. Pregnant, Need Help? ## From Barbara . . .

God is calling each one of us in ways we may not recognize. Samuel didn't realize God was calling him until Eli pointed it out to him. Sometimes we don't recognize God's voice, other times we need to point out to others that God is speaking to them. Take time this week to recognize God's voice in your life and in the lives of those around you. Be open to God's call even if it means going outside your comfort zone. With God, nothing is impossible.

Our parishes' community breakfast is Sunday morning, January 15 at Our Lady of Mount Carmel. It's a great deal and delicious food. I hope you will take advantage of this breakfast as it gives us a chance for fellowship and helps both our parishes financially.

Monday, January 16 we celebrate the Martin Luther King Holiday. We also will be having a holy hour beginning at 7:00 pm. The theme this month is for world peace. I hope you will be able to join us for the holy hour, adoration, and benediction.

May God continue to bless us all.

Sandy has retired!

Sandy Snyder, the bookkeeper for both our parishes, has retired as of Dec. 31, 2011. Sandy has been working for St. Anthony's for 32 years and for Our Lady of Mount Carmel since the parishes twinned in 1987. She is one of the members of the staff that has truly held together our parishes and the ministries that we do. She is going to be truly missed. We will celebrate Sandy's time as an employee of the parishes on Saturday, Jan. 28, 2012 at the 4:00 Mass with a reception following in the upper hall. Please join us as Sandy moves on to a new chapter in her life and the parish office begins to realize how much we will miss her.

Welcome John Jurchak

With Sandy's retirement we had a need to hire someone to take on some of her responsibilities. We are happy to announce that John Jurchak, parishioner of OLMC, has agreed to take the part time position. His responsibilities will be adult faith formation, marriage preparation, and volunteer recruitment and training. These are areas of parish ministry that we hope to enhance. He will be working approximately 15 hours a week starting Jan.10. Welcome aboard John.
